he also lost a shoe early on. But he came out fresh today," said Will, who also has his 2013 junior bronze medallist Pioneer Silvie and Deli Star Hero as potential young rider squad partners.

Canter gets her nose ahead

ROSALIND CANTER won the 98-starter CCI* after a neck-and-neck race with Tim Cheffings (Donateur). The two were equal first after dressage (37.2) and both finished 9sec inside the optimum time across country. But while Tim lowered the first part of the final treble, Rosalind and Joanne Pullan's Cekatinka were fault-free.

"Caroline Moore says she always knows when I'm nervous because I keep asking if my tack is all right, but I've had such a busy day with the Nations Cup, that's actually played to my advantage," said Rosalind, 28.

She competed Cekatinka as a four-year-old when the mare was at Judy Bradwell's yard, but gave up the ride the following year when she stopped working for Judy. She was reunited with her last year when the King Kolibri daughter was six.
